

ANCIENT COLOR

Kelsey Museum of Archaeology
434 South State Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1390

February 8, 2019 – May 26, 2019

Sunday, February 10, 2019 • 2:00–3:00 PM

Curator Tour

Kelsey Museum

Wednesday, March 20, 2019 • 4:00–7:00 PM

Reception and Opening Lecture

Join us in a discussion about the study of pigments and dyes in the ancient world with archaeologist Hilary Becker (State University of New York), conservation scientist Gregory Smith (Indianapolis Museum of Art), art historian Mark Abbe (Lamar Dodd School of Art @ University of Georgia), and conservation scientist Christina Bisulca (Detroit Institute of Arts). The audience is encouraged to join the discussion. Kelsey Museum galleries will be open from 4:00–6:00 PM.

Reception @ Kelsey Museum with non-alcoholic beverages from 4:30–5:30 PM, lecture to follow @ UMMA Helmut Stern Auditorium from 5:30–7:00 PM

Saturday, April 27, 2019 • 1:00–2:00 PM

Dye Workshop with Dottie Sims

Learn how natural dyes are made and used today and then try it out for yourself!
Kelsey Museum, Room 125

Sunday, May 5, 2019 • 2:00–3:00 PM

Curator Tour

Kelsey Museum

For more information:
lsa.umich.edu/kelsey
734.764.9304

