

Please join us for a Museums at Noon presentation!

Speaker: Zachary Kopin (PhD candidate, History)

When: 12:00 pm on November 12

Format: This event is presented in hybrid format, taking place in 2435 North Quad and online via Zoom (registration required). Online participants will be able to ask questions via Q&A.

Public History Without Borders: A Case Study of Working with Johannesburg's Constitution Hill

How do public history, government-funded economic development, and social justice intersect? What opportunities and conflicts present themselves when scholars work with communities and partner institutions distant from their own? And what happens when scholars encounter prejudices within their partner institutions that are antithetical to the work they are doing together?