

Please join us for the 2023-24 MSP proseminar Capstone Project presentations.

Monday, April 15, 5-8 pm
Eldersveld Room, 5670 Haven Hall

5:00 pm

Community Neighborhood Preservation in Detroit: Tools and Strategies for Engagement in Walking Tours

Irma Guzman, Briana Kemmerling, Skyler Leslie, Leopoldo Martinez

Challenge: To identify best practices for the management of a digital community archive, oral histories, and community-donated materials, for future development into a walking tour of Detroit's historic Woodbridge Neighborhood.

6:00 pm

Art for All: Reimagining Access at UMMA

Fatimah Alhawary, Samantha Farmer, Jack Schmitt

Challenge: To enhance UMMA's Rights and Reproductions policy by identifying best practices and investigating models of open access.

7:00 pm

Shifting the Focus: Centering Indigenous and DEI Practices in UMMAA's Collection Management Policy

Lauren Alberti, Caroline Everts, Erin Leary, Hadeel Saad

Challenge: To evaluate and integrate Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) and Community-Centered framework within UMMAA's collections management policy.

These Capstone Projects were sponsored by the Detroit Historical Museum and the Woodbridge Neighborhood Development, the U-M Museum of Anthropological Archaeology, and the U-M Museum of Art. Thank you for your support of the UM Museum Studies Program.